About the Trump Talking pens – Requesting your input before sending to DHS.
This is what we know from Miami (Statement is approved by Field Office).

BACKGROUND:

On October 13, 2015 U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Office of Field Operations (OFO) officers working in Tampa, Florida seized 1,056 counterfeit Donald Trump talking pens arriving in a shipment from Hong Kong. CBP officers selected two packages arriving from Hong Kong on Tuesday October 13th for intensive inspection. They were found to contain 1,056 Donald Trump talking pens. The items in the packages were detained by CBP for further review. Photos were sent to Tampa Import Specialists, the Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Center, and the trademark holder for evaluation and appraisal. The trademark holder verified the product was not authorized and the pens were seized.

No media calls to CBP at this point –

Marco Rubio may be an adversary of Donald Trump's on the campaign trail but the Florida Senator lent a hand to a Clearwater-based businessman who had a shipment of Trump talking pens held by Customs over copyright questions. Rubio's office confirmed a case worker made an inquiry about the shipment, but stressed it was routine constituent work. The pens are still being held.

The businessman, Jeff Kamhi, emailed Rubio's office:

US Customs and Border Protection just seized my order of Donald Trump Talking Pens for alleged Trademark and Copyright infringement. I contacted Border Protection and spoke with a woman named Sgt. Butler asking her what statute I violated but she was unable to give me an answer. She said these pens would be held for 30 days and then possibly an additional 30 days while they determine if I have violated any regulations. As a small business owner, this type of delay will cost me tens of thousands of dollars in lost revenue and severely hurt my company. I did try to explain to Sgt. Butler that these pens were protected under the Fair Use clause of the copyright law. I asked her to contact Donald Trump and show him the pens as I think he would be flattered and honored by the way I portrayed him. I have made political toys and novelties for years, dating back to Bill Clinton, and this is the first time my products have ever been stopped by US Customs. I hope you can help me as you seem to be my last recourse.

A response, signed by Rubio, read:

I regret to learn of the problem you are experiencing with the confiscation of your goods by CBP. It is disappointing that your concerns have not received the appropriate attention. The letter says a case worker had contacted Customs and would follow up.

A message to Customs has not been returned today. Kamhi says a Hillary Clinton pen did not get hung up by Customs.

Good afternoon,

For your visibility (b) (6), reporter for Mother Jones, is working on a story about the ICE and CBP union endorsements of Donald Trump, and she's trying to get a sense for how representative the BP union is of BP workers overall and draw a correlation between Union support of Donald Trump. Specifically she would like us to answer the questions below. Her deadline is tomorrow at 2pm EST.

1. How many people does BP employ?
2. What percentage are minorities?
3. What percentage are Latino?

We sent her the link to USBP staffing numbers available on our website, and HRM shared with us the USBP demographic data below which we will provide before deadline tomorrow as this information is releasable, and has been released in the past.

- 19,830 total BPAs onboard
- 10,939 (55.2%) are minorities
- 10,135 (51.1%) are Latino

Onboard		September 3, 2016 - PP 17
Border Patrol Agent (Includes BPA Reemployed Annuitant)	Hispanic or Latino	10,135
	White	8,891
	Black or African American	345
	Asian American	221
	Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander	42

	American Indian or Alaska Native	150
